BIG-SCREEN BOSTON

It's time to meet Boston's biggest Hollywood star: the city itself! Spend an afternoon with On Location Tours (refer to listing, page 59) and get an exclusive peek at Beantown's silver-screen roots while experiencing an entirely unique tour of its historic beauty. This nationally renowned company offers two tours for film buffs: the new Boston TV & Movie Sites bus tour and the Boston Movie Mile walking tour. Now you can track the chase scene from The Town (pictured above), grab a tall tavern brew from a site where Good Will Hunting was filmed and relive the rooftop climax from The Departed. Patrons are also treated to Boston sets from Mystic River, Legally Blonde, Fever Pitch, 21 and Gone Baby Gone, among others. In all, On Location Tours covers more than 50 movie and TV filming locations, and with local actors and industry insiders guiding the way, there's no better way to experience Hollywood in the Hub. —Benjamin Lindsay

WHAT BOSTON'S
BUZZING ABOUT
8.6.12

ICE DREAMS

From the glitzy Back Bay to the burgeoning Fort Point District, Beantown earns its name with some of the finest iced java in the nation. Coffee hounds need look no further than Wired Puppy (250 Newbury St., 857-366-4655) for the ultimate in liquid energy. With top-of-the-line beans and uncommonly cool digs, Wired Puppy is a good place to spend a short break or an entire afternoon. Great Barrington Coffee Roasters (346 Congress St., 800-528-0998) also offers an uncommonly good iced Sumatran blend that displays hints of chocolate and maintains a smoky, full body even with cream added. With its emphasis on locally sourced eats and fair-trade coffee, Great Barrington is a dream for java devotees. —Paul Adler

DANCE, DANCE REVOLUTION

A classic tale of overcoming adversity and following your dreams,

Billy Elliot (refer to listing, page 22) takes you on the emotional journey of a young man defying gender stereotypes. During a time when boys were meant to box, Billy develops a passion for ballet dancing and finds an instructor who nurtures his talent. This musical, adapted from the 2000 British film of the same name, has earned countless awards worldwide, including ten Tony Awards. Catch the hit show at the Boston Opera House through August 19. —Jagnoor Walha

THE BOMB

While strolling Newbury Street, you might suddenly be hit head-on with an aromatic burst of air. About a block later you'll find the source: beauty mega-brand, LUSH (166 Newbury St., 617-375-5874). This skin care company turns out yummy-smelling items from lotions to body scrubs. Everything is handmade, and even bears a cute little sticker with the face and name of the person who concocted your product. If you're looking for a sure thing, the following items are the brand's top sellers. Dream Cream with softening rose water will transform even the driest skin. Ocean Salt is a stimulating, exfoliating face and body scrub. Sex Bomb (pictured) is a mix of some of the most potent aphrodisiacs known to man, but all we know is it smells good and makes bath time luxurious. Angels on Bare Skin is a clay-based deep exfoliating cleanser, and Buffy Body Butter is a two-in-one moisturizer and exfoliator that contains cocoa butter. —Samantha House

SIZZLING READ

When it comes to sizzling summer reads, Judith Glynn knows exactly how to please. With an impressive body of travel writing under her belt, Glynn's very first novel, A Collector of Affections (Fox Under Press, ISBN: 978-0-9834595-0-7, $8.99), is an inspired debut full of steamy ardor and exotic locales. In this involving read, Leah Lynch escapes New York and its wealth of dead-end relationships for a two-week soul searching trip to Spain. Along the way she meets the hunky Miguel Santiago, with whom she soon begins a clandestine long-distance affair. Through love and loss Leah must come to terms with her relationship with Miguel, while building a career as a successful businesswoman. Full of heartbreak and redemption, A Collector of Affections deserves a spot on anyone's beach towel. —Paul Adler

OUTDOOR DINING

BOSTONIANS JUST CAN'T WAIT UNTIL THE WEATHER TURNS WARM SO WE CAN bask in the glory of the great outdoors. Whether it's a waterfront, cityscape or garden view you're after, there are endless ways to enjoy a meal alfresco in the Hub. Below is Panorama's list of some of the best places to nosh among nature. BY SAMANTHA HOUSE

Smith & Wollensky

The Hungry i

Chef Dante de Magistris serves classic Italian fare at his namesake restaurant, Dante (40 Edwin H. Land Blvd., Cambridge, 617-497-4200), set against a beautiful city backdrop.

The popular waterfront area is home to many top-notch eateries, including Del Frisco's Double Eagle Steak House (250 Northern Ave., 617-951-1368), which serves surf, turf and everything in between to well-heeled diners.

With a nationwide reputation for outstanding Italian food and an owner who is nearly as well known, Strega Waterfront (One Marina Park Dr., 617-345-3992) is a new take on an old-school North End staple with a better view and a bit more glamour.

With arguably the best waterfront view in Boston, the seaside location of Legal Sea Foods, Legal Harborside (270 Northern Ave., 617-477-2900), boasts three floors, including a rooftop dining and bar area.

Fitted with an intimate bar, dining tables and couches on which to lounge, Smith &

Wollensky's (290 Congress St., 617-778-2200) outdoor area at its waterfront location is perhaps the best of all worlds. For a casual drink or fine dining, the view, the crowd and the food are hard to match elsewhere.

Located in the heart of Boston's Theatre District, Vapiano (191 Stuart St., 857-445-0236) is the perfect place to sit outside, enjoy fresh pasta, a glass of wine and people watching.

Beacon Hill hotspot The Hungry i (71½ Charles St., 617-227-3524) boasts a beautiful courtyard in which to while away the hours, and is a perfectly romantic setting for dining on the decadent cuisine of chef Peter Ballarin.

If you're looking for something casual, try The Kinsale (2 Center Plaza, 617-742-5577) for a large outdoor patio within walking distance of Faneuil Hall and the North End.

Located in Back Bay, the patio at Skipjack's (199 Clarendon St., 617-536-3500) is a place to see and be seen. From laid-back lunches to luxe dinners, including its legendary raw bar and sushi, Skipjack's has something for everyone.

BASKET BUFFETS

A lunch-lovers' guide to the perfect picnic.

Few meals match the enchantment of picnicking in summer's warmth, wine's glow and friends' company. Why not make a quick stop at one of these grab-and-go spots, spread out a blanket and bask in the glory of Boston outdoors?

A waterfront haven for Italian grub, Sportello (348 Congress St., 617-737-1234) packs a delicious punch with its lunch box deal. A sandwich, cookie, drink and chips lovingly wrapped in a small box are all you need for a meal alfresco.

One of Boston's most decadent shops, South End Formaggio (268 Shawmut Avenue, 617-350-6996), provides perfection in picnicking with its heralded selection of artisan cheeses and cured meats. The store also boasts an embarrassment of riches in the form of specialty chocolates, olive oils, honeys, jams and more.

If you're looking to throw a larger event, there's no one better to call on than Boston Picnic Company (bostonpicniccompany.com). The name says it all—from a No Frills BBQ Picnic to The All American, these folks come with everything you need for a day of noshing in the sun.

Sportello

South End Formaggio

With a basket of Boston's finest eats, you'll need an equally fine setting in which to enjoy it. Pick a park, a beach or a pier. The Rose Kennedy Greenway has chairs stacked if you would rather not share your seat with the ants. Boston Common is riddled with loungers and picnickers daily and the observation towers at Belle Isle Marsh Reservation (Bennington Street, East Boston) offer Mother Nature and Boston in one sweeping panoramic view. —Benjamin Lindsay

OUT TO BRUNCH

In recent years, brunch has risen from an obscure weekend treat to a full-fledged nationwide obsession. With countless restaurants getting in on the craze, it can be a tall order trying to pick one spot with the perfect brunch. Below is Panorama's rundown on Beantown's biggest stars and the dishes that make them shine.

Tremont 647 (647 Tremont St., 617-266-4600) is our first pick for total brunch nirvana. Among golden ham and cheese croquettes and awe-inspiring homemade pop tarts, you'll find some seriously top-notch shrimp and grits. Slathered in a spicy creole sauce and packed with cheddar cheese, this dish is unbeatable.

Next on our list is the brunch epicenter known as The Paramount (44 Charles St., 617-720-1152). Its fresh banana and caramel French toast is perhaps the world's best. The crispy, sweet dish oozes with caramel and is piled high with slices of fresh banana.

Those who prefer savory fare need look no further than City Table (65 Exeter St., 617-933-4800). While this sleek restaurant connected to the Lenox Hotel serves up plenty of amazing eats, its duck confit hash is absolutely worth writing home about.

City Table

For eggs, stop by Union Bar and Grille (1357 Washington St., 617-423-0555), where you can gobble down its award-winning spicy, savory chorizo omelet. And if you really want to splurge, head to Back Bay Social Club (867 Boylston St., 617-247-3200) for its utterly amazing fried chicken and waffles. —Paul Adler

ROSE KENNEDY GREENWAY

From buzzing cars to urban paradise, the Greenway has changed Boston as we know it.

The Rose Kennedy Greenway is a 1.5 mile-long strip of gardens, pavilions, grass and sculpture stretching all the way from the North End to Chinatown. The story of the Greenway begins in the 1940s, when city fathers began hatching a grand plan to build a "Highway in the Skies" above downtown Boston.

Dubbed The Central Artery, this series of elevated bridges and tunnels was completed on 1959 and displaced more than 10,000 residents during its construction. Plagued by poor construction, a lack of breakdown lanes and bad design, the whole structure was soon considered a failure. In 1991, construction was finally begun on the Central Artery and Tunnel Project, which would move I-93 underground.

With so much real estate up for grabs, a number of state, city and civic groups agreed to establish a public park in place of the congested highway. Named after JFK's mother, the Greenway was a gift to Bostonians and was planted with thousands of trees, shrubs and flowers by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society.

On October 4, 1998, the Rose Kennedy Greenway officially opened with a park-wide celebration, which included everything from a Ferris wheel to musical performances, a public market, a functioning carousel and organized Yoga classes. More importantly, the celebration ushered in a cleaner, greener era for the Hub. —Paul Adler

PANORAMA's GUIDE TO BOSTON SEAFOOD

From lobster to crab cakes, plan a night at one of our favorite seafood spots.

BY SAMANTHA HOUSE | PHOTOS BY DANIELLE ASHLEY BURKE

Atlantic Fish

With menus printed every day, you can be sure that the seafood is fresh off the boat before it makes its way to your table. Dishes such as The Captain's Platter with deep fried shrimp, scallops, clams and haddock, and the New England Lobster Feast—a two-pound steamed lobster served with clam chowder, mussels, steamers, corn on the cob and new potatoes—will entice and satisfy even the pickiest seafood connoisseur.

761 Boylston St., 617-267-4000

East Coast Grill

We're not sure what the folks over at East Coast Grill are more obsessed with—food or customers. After 25 years in the business, this eatery coined the phrase: We lit the fire, you keep it going. 1271 Cambridge St., Cambridge, 617-491-6568

Skipjack's

An old-school Boston staple, this seafood spot is known for classic dishes that never disappoint. On weekends, check out its jazz brunch and drinks such as the Nasty Nancy made with tequila, tomato juice and lager. 199 Clarendon St., 617-536-3500

The Daily Catch

This Sicilian restaurant serves fresh seafood and handmade pasta to rave reviews. Located in the beautiful North End, this eatery is known for its authentic Italian fare. Try the lobster fra diavolo while you're there.

323 Hanover St., 617-523-8567

Dolphin Seafood

Lovingly called the 'Phin, this Cambridge nightspot offers signature cocktails, tea service and even a late night menu that includes $4.99 appetizers such as lobster roll sliders, mini crab cakes and Rhode Island calamari. You'll also find a $1 raw bar every day of the week.

1105 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, 617-661-2937

Island Creek Oyster Bar

Located in the Hotel Commonwealth, this upscale restaurant offers beautiful ambiance, inspired dishes, signature cocktails and, you guessed it, oysters served every way you can imagine.

500 Commonwealth Ave., 617-532-5300

Neptune Oyster

Given its North End location, it would be easy to wander in off the street while sightseeing. Inside, you'll find one of the best raw bars in the city and an extensive wine list. This spot has even received a nod from Food & Wine magazine.

63 Salem St., 617-742-3474

Turner Fisheries

This Back Bay haunt uses only fresh, sustainable seafood from ethical and eco-friendly sources. Its also offers an entire menu for gluten-free guests and daily deals such as $1 oysters from 5 p.m. until close.

10 Huntington Ave., 617-424-7425

Legal Sea Foods

With several locations in Boston and beyond, a great reputation for fresh, plentiful seafood at reasonable prices and arguably the best chowder on the planet, Legal has become a veritable Boston institution. Make a reservation or just walk in—Legal's staff will always accommodate.

255 State St., 617-742-5300

Union Oyster House

Better known as a tourist destination, this is the oldest resaturant in the country, so it has had plenty of time to perfect dishes such as fish chowder and its many lobster offerings.

41 Union St., 617-227-2750

HOUSE OF BLUES

This club, concert hall and restaurant across from Fenway Park welcomes top rock, blues and pop acts. July 29 at 8 p.m.—Aaron Lewis, tickets: $26 & 46; Aug 2 at 8 p.m.—Slash with Myles Kennedy and The Conspirators, tickets: $32.50 & 49.50; Aug 4 at 7 p.m.—The Bouncing Souls, tickets: $20; Aug 9 at 8 p.m.—Old Crow Medicine Show with The Lumineers, tickets: $35 & 45; Aug 10 at 7 p.m.—Eve 6, tickets: $50; Aug 11 at 7 p.m.—Allstar Weekend with Honor Society, Namesake, This Is All Now, tickets: $20 & 70. 15 Lansdowne St., 888-693-BLUE, hob.com/boston.

ALL SHOOK UP

North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly, 978-232-7200. Beginning Aug 14. Tickets: $40-70. This uproarious musical featuring the unforgettable hits of Elvis Presley tells the romantic, wacky, mixed-up tale of a guitar playing roust-about who rides into a struggling town and turns it upside-down.

ANNIE

North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly, 978-232-7200. Through July 29. Tickets: $40-70. In this beloved musical based on the classic comic strip, a spunky Depression-era orphan embarks on adventure after fun-filled adventure, foiling the evil machinations of the orphanage's Miss Hannigan, befriending President Roosevelt and finding a new family and home with billionaire Oliver Warbucks, his personal secretary Grace Farrell and the lovable mutt Sandy.

BILLY ELLIOT THE MUSICAL

Boston Opera House, 539 Washington St., 866-523-7469. July 24-Aug 19. Tickets:

$30-110. Based on the smash-hit film and featuring music by Elton John, this joyous musical about one boy's journey to make his dreams come true follows Billy as he stumbles out of the boxing ring and into a ballet class, discovering a surprising passion that inspires his family and his small town.

INSIDE TIP:
The ballet that Billy is in at the end of the movie is Swan Lake.

CORIANUS

Commonwealth Shakespeare Company, Shakespeare on the Common, 617-426-0863. July 25-Aug 12. Free and open to the public. Shakespeare's political drama charting the rise and fall of a powerful Roman general who triumphs in the field but struggles with politics, responsibility and government at home takes center stage near the Parkman Bandstand on Boston Common.

BEACON HILL

An old world feeling awaits you in this quaint part of the city

Walking along Beacon Hill's picturesque gas-lit streets, brick sidewalks and Federal-style row houses, it's not uncommon to feel as though you've travelled back in time. Both eminently posh and utterly accommodating, this area has born witness to much of the city's storied past. The State House—with its gleaming gold dome—sits on the peak of the hill where the beacon for which the district was named used to reside. In this neighborhood, visitors can also find the African Meeting House, which holds the Museum of African-American History, as well as the Bull and Finch Pub, the inspiration for the popular TV show, "Cheers." Charles Street, located at the flat of the hill, is lined with boutiques, restaurants, cafes and charming hotels. Locals descend the hill daily to enjoy all that Charles Street has to offer, adding to the feeling of small-town charm.

BACK BAY

This famous neighborhood is truly the hub of the Hub

Exquisite architecture and world-class retailers are plentiful in Boston's most well-known neighborhood. The Victorian brick and brownstone residences that line the streets are not only beautiful, they're widely regarded as the best-preserved examples of 19th-century urban design in the United States. Newbury and Boylston streets, where luxury shops vie for space amidst outstanding restaurants, welcome visitors and residents alike. Back Bay is also home to the iconic Prudential Tower, Trinity Church, Boston Public Library, the John Hancock Tower and two sprawling shopping malls connected by a climate-controlled bridge. You'll also find standout salons, spas, antique shops and galleries throughout. Nightlife thrives in Back Bay as well, where locals and visitors alike flock to chic hotel bars, restaurants and lounges to see and be seen.

NORTH END

Fabulous cuisine, shopping and history are abundant in Boston's Little Italy

Italian culture reigns in the North End, Boston's oldest and busiest neighborhood. The sweet scent of fresh cannoli rises from countless Italian bakeries that permeate this neighborhood's narrow cobblestone streets, while the veritable buffet of dining choices will have you wishing there were more than three meals to enjoy in a day. Recently, clothing and home decor boutiques have been setting up shop here, making the North End an even more diverse and desirable destination. Don't even try to find a parking space—it's best to hop on the T or walk. If you happen to be strolling The Freedom Trail, you'll discover three of the North End's most important historical sites: The Paul Revere House, Copp's Hill Burying Ground and the Old North Church. Summertime brings people into the streets to celebrate various Italian feasts with music, socializing and, of course, sensational food.

FREEDOM TRAIL

The Freedom Trail begins at the Boston Common Information Kiosk, where you can obtain a guide map, rent a self-guided audio tour or take a walking tour (in season) with an 18th-century costumed guide. Ticket sales from Freedom Trail Foundation tours help preserve the historic sites. Boston National Historical Park tours (National Park Service) begin at Faneuil Hall. Call 617-357-8300 or visit TheFreedomTrail.org for additional info.

1 BOSTON COMMON

Set aside in 1634 as a military training field and grazing pasture, the Common is America's oldest public park. It served as quarters for British as well as Colonial troops, and later housed Civil War regiments. The British Army set out for the start of the Revolutionary War from what is now Park Square.

2 THE STATE HOUSE

Beacon St. on top of Beacon Hill, 617-727-3676. Mon–Fri 10 a.m.–4 p.m., except holidays. Registration required for guided tours. The golden dome marks the government seat of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. On land acquired from John Hancock, Samuel Adams laid the cornerstone, and the red brick portion was designed by architect Charles Bulfinch.

3 PARK STREET CHURCH

Corner of Park and Tremont Sts., 617-523-3383. Sunday services at 8:30 and 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Morning services are traditional, evening services are contemporary. Built in 1809, this church was described by Henry James as “the most interesting mass of brick and mortar in America.”

4 OLD GRANARY BURYING GROUND

Tremont St. next to Park Street Church, 617-635-4505. Daily 9 a.m.–5 p.m. This historic cemetery is the final resting place of John Hancock, Paul Revere, Samuel Adams and the victims of the Boston Massacre, as well as Elizabeth Goose, believed to be the legendary “Mother Goose.”

5 KING'S CHAPEL & BURYING GROUND

Tremont and School Sts., 617-227-2155. Chapel open Mon, Thu–Sat 10 a.m.–4 p.m. Services: Sun at 11 a.m., Wed at 12:15 p.m. Burying Grounds open daily 10 a.m.–4 p.m. Still an active house of worship, King's Chapel was established in 1687 as the first Anglican congregation in Boston.

6 SITE OF FIRST PUBLIC SCHOOL & BEN FRANKLIN'S STATUE

On School Street, marked by a column and commemorative plaque. On April 13, 1635, the town voted to establish the first public school in the country. Nearby is Benjamin Franklin's statue, built in 1856, the first portrait statue erected in the United States.

7 SITE OF THE OLD CORNER BOOKSTORE

School and Washington Sts. Constructed as an apothecary in 1718, the ground floor was later a bookstore and literary center of Boston and a meeting place for notables like Emerson, Hawthorne and Thoreau.

8 OLD SOUTH MEETING HOUSE

310 Washington St., 617-482-6439. Daily 9:30 a.m.–5 p.m. Admission: $6; seniors (6–18) $1; children (under 6) free. This building housed many town meetings, the most famous of which saw an outraged Samuel Adams signal the start of the Boston Tea Party.

9 OLD STATE HOUSE

Corner of Washington and State streets, 617-720-1713. Daily 9:30 a.m.-5:15 p.m. Admission: $7.50; seniors & students $6; children (6-18) $3; children (under 6) free. Built in 1713, this seat of Colonial government was the center of activity for such patriots as John Hancock and Samuel and John Adams. It was here that the Declaration of Independence was first read in Boston.

10 BOSTON MAS-

SACRE SITE State Street in front of the Old State House. At the next intersection below the State House, a ring of cobblestones marks the site of the clash between a jeering Boston crowd and a British guard of nine soldiers on March 5, 1770.

11 FANEUIL HALL

Merchants Row and Faneuil Hall Square, 617-242-5689. Mon-Thu 10 a.m.-7 p.m., Fri & Sat 'til 9 p.m., Sun noon-6 p.m. Historical talks given every half hour from 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., when hall is not in use. "The Cradle of Liberty" combines a marketplace on the first floor with the town meeting hall upstairs, the site of fiery revolutionary debate.

12 PAUL REVERE

HOUSE 19 North Square, North Street, 617-523-2338. Daily 9:30 a.m.-5:15 p.m. Closed Mondays. Admission: $3.50; seniors & students $3; children (5-17) $1. The oldest home in Boston (built c. 1680), occupied by silversmith and patriot Paul Revere from 1770 to 1800. United States.

13 OLD NORTH CHURCH

193 Salem St., 617-523-6676. Daily 9 a.m.-6 p.m. Services: Sun at 9 and 11 a.m., Thu at 6 p.m. Known as Christ Church and erected in 1723, this is Boston's oldest standing church. Two lanterns were hung here on April 18, 1775, signaling the Redcoats' departure by sea for Lexington and Concord.

14 COPP'S HILL BURYING GROUND

Hull Street. Daily 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Set out in 1660, Copp's Hill was Boston's second cemetery. Many remarkable people are interred here, including the Mather family of ministers and Edmund Hartt, builder of the USS Constitution.

15 BUNKER HILL

MONUMENT Breed's Hill, Charlestown, 617-242-7511. Daily 9 a.m.-5 p.m., last climb at 4:30 p.m. The site of the historic battle of June 17, 1775.

16 USS CONSTITUTION

Charlestown Navy Yard, Charlestown, 617-242-5670. Thu-Sun 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Tours every half-hour 'til 3:30 p.m. This 44-gun frigate is the world's oldest commissioned warship, christened "Old Ironsides" during the War of 1812 when cannonballs literally bounced off her triple hull.

MATTHEW KING

With a resume that would impress even the most jaded gourmands, this star chef is redefining steak in Boston.

BONO, ELTON JOHN AND THREE

United States Presidents—these are just a few of the world-famous performers and politicians Chef Matthew King has served. With a long career in some of the world's finest restaurants, King has finally landed at renowned steakhouse Smith & Wollensky (294 Congress St., Atlantic Wharf, 617-778-2200).

Born and raised in Shrewsbury, Mass., King began his first culinary job during high school working for a local catering company. "I fell in love with the work and decided it was what I wanted to do with my life," says King. "During that time my grandfather also taught me how important it is to be organized and really supported my love of cooking."

With these lessons in hand, King studied at the prestigious Culinary Institute of America. After graduating in 1996, the chef went on to work at the five-star Ponte Vedra Inn and Club in Florida, as well as the prestigious Essex House in New York City. Due to a series of mishaps and moves among other chefs, King was soon in charge of the Essex's entire banquet department, where he served a bevy of U.S. Presidents.

Following a brief post as Executive Chef at Smith & Wollensky, King moved to Ireland. There the young chef opened his own steakhouse, Benjamin's of Boston, which received strong reviews. However, Boston would remain at the forefront of this star chef's heart and, after returning to America, King began to work with Smith & Wollensky.

"I was really involved from the very start with the opening of the Atlantic Wharf location," says King, who is the company's director of culinary development. "Smith & Wollensky has really given me a lot of room to fine-tune the steakhouse concept and come up with items that incorporate new food trends into a classic menu." —Paul Adler
